

PBS GENERAL SALES TERMS AND CONDITIONS

PBS Aerospace Inc.

(valid as of 13 December 2023)

I. INTRODUCTORY PROVISIONS

1. These General Sales Terms and Conditions (hereinafter referred to as the “Terms and Conditions”) form an integral part of contracts entered into by PBS Aerospace Inc., with its office at 3400 Peachtree Rd. Suite 939, Atlanta, GA 30326 USA, , Georgia corporation, as a supplier (hereinafter referred to as “PBS”), as the first party, and individual clients and buyers (hereinafter referred to as the “Buyer”), and shall apply to any and all deliveries of products and other goods, works or services (hereinafter referred to as the “Subject of Performance” or “Deliveries”) that are or shall be carried out by PBS, except for a separate written delivery agreement entered into between PBS and the Buyer, specifically excluding these Terms and Conditions.

2. Any changes hereto made by the Buyer shall only be valid upon a written confirmation thereof by PBS.

3. The Parties explicitly confirm that they enter into this Contract as entrepreneurs conducting their business, and none of them is in a position of a weaker party towards the other one.

II. CLOSING OF CONTRACTS

1. Unless the PBS offer specifically states otherwise, the PBS offer expires after 30 days from the date of delivery thereof to the Buyer.

2. The Buyer's response to PBS's offer, which contains any changes, shall be deemed a new offer and shall be subject to acceptance by PBS.

3. Any oral order of the Buyer shall always be confirmed in writing. In the event of an oral order, the Contract shall not be entered into until confirmed in writing by PBS.

4. Any derogating undertakings in the Contract shall take precedence over the provisions hereof.

5. Any changes or amendments of the Contract may only be made in the form of written amendments signed by both Parties.

6. PBS reserves the right to change the terms and conditions to the extent appropriate. Such change shall be effective against the Buyer upon notification to the Buyer. Notification may also be made orally.

III. DELIVERY CONDITIONS, DELIVERY PERIODS

1. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, products shall be delivered FCA PBS designated and authorized production site according to INCOTERMS 2020 rules. Where the Buyer requires the goods to be packed in packaging, this needs to be explicitly stated in the order. Otherwise, the goods will be delivered without packaging. The costs on packaging shall be borne by the Buyer.

2. Where the Buyer requires the products to be modified (customized as requested by the Buyer), PBS shall check whether the required modifications can be made and, if the modifications can be made, PBS shall also determine a date on which the modified products can be delivered. Under no circumstances, standard delivery dates shall apply for deliveries of modified products, not even should PBS fail to specify the delivery date. If PBS fails to specify the date, it shall deliver the modified products within a time period reasonable for the required modifications.

3. PBS shall not be responsible for the choice and suitability of products or services ordered by the Buyer for the purposes intended by the Buyer.

4. Unless agreed otherwise, PBS is entitled to perform the Delivery through partial deliveries, and the Buyer is obliged to accept the partial deliveries. In such a case, the Buyer must pay the respective part of the price upon the completion of the respective partial delivery at the latest.

5. The Buyer is obliged to accept the Subject of Performance at the agreed place and time of performance. The Delivery shall be considered completed by PBS once it is delivered at the agreed place and time of performance, even should the Buyer fail to arrive or refuse to take over the Delivery or where the Buyer refuses to confirm the Handover Protocol. Unless agreed otherwise in writing, PBS is also entitled to deliver the Subject of Performance before the agreed time of performance. Should the Buyer be in default with regard to the takeover of the Subject of Performance, the risk of damage shall pass to the Buyer.

6. Should the Buyer fail to take over the Subject of Performance at the agreed time of performance or, where the date of the handover/takeover has not been agreed between the Parties, PBS shall deliver a notice to the Buyer that the Subject of Performance is ready for takeover and, after a period of fourteen (14) days from the delivery of such notice, PBS shall store the Subject of Performance and the Buyer shall pay all costs related to such storage. In the event that the Buyer's delay in takeover lasts longer than fourteen (14) days, PBS shall be entitled to demand payment of a contractual penalty in the amount of 0.02% of the price of the agreed performance whose takeover by the Buyer is in delay for each day of delay commenced, however, the total sum of such contractual penalty shall not exceed an amount corresponding to 5% of the price of the agreed performance. PBS shall also be entitled to withdraw from the Contract for this reason.

7. Should, for reasons for which is PBS liable, PBS fail to provide the contracted delivery within the agreed time period, and such a time period is exceeded by more than 14 days, the Buyer may claim a contractual penalty of 0.1% of the price of the contracted delivery, with delivery of which PBS is in default, for each full calendar week of delay, however, the total sum of the contractual penalty shall not exceed the amount equal to 5% of the price of the respective contracted delivery. PBS is obliged to pay the contractual penalty within ten (10) calendar days from delivery of the request for payment of the contractual penalty.

8. PBS is entitled to interrupt or suspend its performance towards the Buyer whenever the Buyer is in default with the payment of any of the PBS's payable receivables against the Buyer or is in default with the fulfilment of other contractual obligation arising from any contract entered into between the Buyer and PBS; in such a case, PBS must notify the Buyer in writing at least 7 days prior to the interruption or suspension of the performance towards the Buyer. Regardless of whether PBS decides to suspend its performance, in the event of the Buyer's default with the payment of any of the PBS's payable receivables against the Buyer or with the fulfilment of other contractual obligation arising from any contract entered into between the Buyer and PBS: (i) the time of performance shall automatically extend for PBS by the time for which the Buyer is in default with the payment of any payable receivable or with the fulfilment of other contractual obligation; and (ii) the Buyer shall pay PBS any and all costs incurred by PBS due to the Buyer's default with the payment of any due claim to PBS (including costs of financing and storage, demurrage, etc.) or as a result of the Buyer's failure to fulfil other contractual obligation arising from any contract between the Buyer and PBS.

IV. PRICES, PAYMENT TERMS

1. All Deliveries shall be made for the prices specified at the time when PBS has made an offer or confirmed an order.

2. The price shall be negotiated by agreement, exclusive of tax. Tax at the statutory rate as of the date of taxable delivery shall be added to the price. Unless explicitly agreed otherwise, the price shall not include any costs of transport, postage, packaging etc.

3. If the price of materials, energy or components purchased increases by more than 5% between the date when the Contract enters into force and the date of taxable delivery, PBS is entitled to increase the price of the Subject of Performance adequately by an amount equal to the increase of the price of materials, energy or components purchased, in which case PBS is obliged to prove the resulting additional costs to the Buyer upon request.

4. The price of Delivery shall mean the price FCA PBS designated and authorized production site (INCOTERMS 2020), exclusive of taxes, duties, charges, costs and other similar payments and costs of transport and insurance.

5. Where PBS has also committed itself to install, assemble or commission the Subject of Performance, the Buyer is also obliged to pay PBS, in addition to the agreed price for the installation, assembling or commissioning, any and all other costs effectively and demonstrably incurred in connection therewith.

6. Unless the Parties agree otherwise, the Buyer is obliged to pay PBS an advance payment for the price based on pro forma invoice issued by PBS in the total amount of 100% of the Subject of Performance which may only be issued by PBS after signing the Contract (order), however, not later than before delivery of the Subject of Performance to the Buyer. Unless otherwise stated on pro forma invoice, each pro forma invoice shall be due and payable upon receipt of such proforma invoice.

7. With the delivery of the Subject of Performance, PBS undertakes to issue an invoice in which all advance payments accepted will be cleared.

8. Payments shall be made by the Buyer by a wire transfer to the PBS's bank account. The price shall be considered paid at the moment when the sum is credited to the PBS's account. Each Party shall pay its own respective bank charges.

9. In the event that the parties agree that the price will be paid through a letter of credit (hereinafter referred to as the “L/C”), the Buyer agrees to open the L/C in favour of PBS no later than thirty (30) days from the signing of the contract.

10. Should the Buyer be in default with the payment, even of a part of the invoiced sum or the advance payment, and should the buyer be in default with issuing the L/C, the Buyer must pay PBS a contractual penalty of 0.05% of the outstanding amount for each commenced day of delay, without the need of written notice by PBS. The payment of the contractual penalty shall not affect any other PBS's claims arising from the Buyer's default, in particular, the claim for damages. The contractual penalty shall be payable on the day following the day on which the claim arises.

11. The Buyer may only set off unilaterally its outstanding receivables towards PBS against the PBS's receivables towards the Buyer provided that the offset has been approved in writing by PBS in advance. PBS may set off unilaterally any of its receivables towards the Buyer against any Buyer's receivables towards PBS regardless of the legal relationship under which the claim arises. The Buyer agrees that PBS may also set off its receivables against such receivables that are not yet due or are time-barred. The Buyer may not assign or pledge any of its receivables against PBS to a third party without the PBS's prior written consent.

V. WARRANTY AND LIABILITY FOR DEFECTS

1. Unless the product documentation or confirmation of the Buyer's order by PBS or the Contract specify for the respective product, service or another performance of PBS otherwise, PBS shall provide the Buyer with a warranty (quality guarantee) for 12 months from the date of handover of the Subject of Performance to the Buyer, or of delivery to the place of performance according to the agreed delivery terms, whichever comes first.

2. Obligation to inspect: the Buyer is obliged to inspect the delivery upon acceptance of the delivery to determine whether the delivery is free from defects in quantity or apparent defects.

3. The Buyer shall claim any defects using the web form at Complaint form - PBS Aerospace (<https://pbsaerospace.com/customer-support/complaint-form>).

4. The Buyer shall make a claim for quantity or apparent defects in the Subject of Performance within three (3) days after the delivery of the Subject of Performance to the Buyer or upon delivery to the place of performance in accordance with the agreed terms of delivery, whichever occurs sooner. The Buyer is obliged to claim other defects within the specified warranty period. A claim is timely if it is sent by the Buyer by the last day of the period, otherwise the right to claim for quantity or obvious defects shall be extinguished. In the claim, the Buyer shall describe the defect found or state how it manifests itself, or provide evidence of the defect found. . Until the claim has been settled, the Buyer shall not use the claimed Subject of Performance and shall store it separately. If a replacement Subject of Performance is provided, the Buyer shall return the defective Subject of Performance according to the shipping instructions provided by PBS within fourteen (14) days of the provision of the replacement Subject of Performance.

5. The Buyer shall notify PBS in writing of any other defects (i.e. defects other than apparent defects or defects in quantity) covered by the warranty within 3 days after the Buyer has discovered the defect or should or could have discovered the defect, otherwise the Buyer's rights under the defect shall be extinguished.

6. The warranty claim shall be examined by PBS within 30 calendar days, and the Buyer shall be notified in writing whether or not the claim is legitimate. The choice of claim under defective performance shall be determined by PBS. PBS shall, at its sole discretion, remove the defect by repairing or replacing the defective product (or any part thereof) with a defect-free product or by providing a reasonable discount from the purchase price. Defective parts replaced free of charge may be kept by PBS. Unless the Parties agree otherwise, the Buyer's right to receive a reasonable discount from the purchase price shall only pertain to the Buyer, if repair or replacement of a defective product, or any part thereof is not economical or ineffective or if PBS is not able to carry out the repair within the agreed time period or the repair or replacement cannot be carried out due to non-existence or unavailability of the part that could be replaced for the defective part, always at the choice of PBS.

7. Any Buyer's rights under the warranty or defective performance shall be excluded if the defect results from normal wear and tear, mechanical damage to the product during the operation or incorrect handling thereof, improper storage, modification or disassembly of the product by any person other than a technician fully trained in the field, through the fault or omission of the Buyer, improper or non-recommended use of the product, or operation of the product in a mode other than the one for which the product is designed, for example, failure to observe the installation, assembly, operation and maintenance instructions.

8. Any Buyer's rights under defective performance shall also be excluded should the Buyer fail to provide assistance necessary to examine whether the warranty claim is legitimate.

9. If the Buyer has not paid the price of the subject of performance properly and timely, PBS is entitled to refuse to settle the warranty claim, until the Buyer provides a remedy.

10. Under no circumstances, PBS shall assume responsibility for defects, incompleteness, discrepancies or inconsistencies arising from models, drawings, designs, blueprints, production documentation or other information provided by the Buyer. PBS is not obliged to notify the Buyer of the defects above.

11. In addition, PBS is not responsible for any defects or inconsistencies in the product functionality (manifestation of defects) caused by interference with the operation of the Buyer's system / equipment / product or the system / equipment / product supplied by a third party.

12. If PBS is not responsible for the defect, any costs on the works performed (repair and / or delivery of the replacement goods or product) shall be charged to the Buyer based on the currently valid standard PBS' price list, as well as any costs of dispatch, loading and unloading and preparatory work.

13. The warranty (quality guarantee) provided hereunder supersedes any rights arising from defective performance provided for by law; this shall not apply to the PBS' liability for apparent defects existing at the time of handover of the Subject of Performance.

14. Unless agreed otherwise, any Buyer's claims arising from the breach of the Contract by PBS, based on mal-performance or non-performance by PBS shall become time-bared 12 months after the respective claim has arisen at the latest.

15. Rights under the warranty cannot be assigned to a third party without the prior written consent of PBS.

16. The Buyer's right to withhold a part of the price corresponding to the Buyer's entitlement to a discount is excluded.

VI. TRANSFER OF TITLE AND RISK OF DAMAGE

1. If the Subject of Performance is taken over by the Buyer before the payment of the agreed purchase price, the title to the Subject of Performance shall pass to the Buyer only when the purchase price is fully paid to PBS, provided that the legislation of the state where the place of performance is located permits so.

2. Should the Buyer be in default with the taking over the Subject of Performance, the risk of damage to the Delivery shall pass to the Buyer on the first day of such default. Should the Subject of Performance be despatched or handed over to the carrier late for reasons attributable to the Buyer, or the start or completion of the installation, assembly or test run be delayed for reasons attributable to the Buyer, PBS shall not be in default, and the risk of damage shall pass to the Buyer on the day on which the Subject of Performance should have been handed over to the carrier or despatched, or on the day on which the installation, assembly or test run should have started or been completed.

3. Where the Parties have agreed that the transport shall be arranged by PBS, either by its own means or through a third party, the risk of damage to the Delivery shall pass upon handover thereof to the first carrier.

VII. FORCE MAJEURE

1. If PBS fails to comply with its contractual obligation or fails to deliver the Delivery within the agreed time period due to the existence of unusual or unpredictable circumstances beyond PBS' control (hereinafter referred to as the "Force Majeure"), PBS shall not be responsible for the failure to comply and the time period for the completion of the Delivery shall be extended by the time for which the Force Majeure event exists.

2. The Force Majeure event shall mean, in particular, natural disaster (e.g., flood, storm, thunder, unusual heat, unusual cold, unusual drought, hail, landslide, avalanche, earthquake and consequences thereof, etc.), war, mobilization, riots and similar events, as well as the strike (including reported strikes), lock-out, unintended interruption of operation, import or export embargo, irreparable or costly removable defects of equipment and machines necessary for the delivery of the Subject of Performance (costly removable defects shall mean defects the repair of which costs more than 3% of the purchase price of the machine or equipment), as well as holding or non-granting an official authorization (in particular, an export license granted by the competent authority) that is necessary to carry out the Delivery, although the obligated party has applied for the official authorization timely and properly. The same shall also apply to PBS if the Force Majeure event occurs at any of PBS' subcontractors.

VIII. PROTECTION RIGHTS AND CONFIDENTIALITY

1. Under no circumstances, shall the Buyer acquire any intellectual property rights (including, without limitation to copyright) regarding the agreed Subject of Performance and the design, technical information, software, documents, drawings and/or similar specifications relating thereto, provided by or on behalf of PBS unless agreed with PBS in writing otherwise.

2. The Buyer is not entitled to damage, overlap or remove PBS' trademarks, trade names and logos placed on PBS' products.

3. The Buyer undertakes to treat the technical information and any other information corresponding by their nature to trade secrets or marked as "confidential", as well as any information of which the Buyer may reasonably believe that PBS is interested in keeping it in secrecy or its secrecy is in PBS' interest, provided orally or in writing (as well as electronically), as confidential information (hereinafter referred to as the "Confidential Information"). In this respect, the Buyer undertakes to maintain confidentiality regarding the Confidential Information for the duration of the contractual relationship between PBS and the Buyer, and then for an unlimited period of time after the termination thereof; not to provide or otherwise disclose it to third parties, except where the disclosure thereof is required by law or state authorities; not to use it for its own benefit or enrichment or for the benefit or enrichment of a third party; not to use it without the prior written consent of PBS for any purposes other than for which it has been provided.

4. The Buyer shall adopt any organisational, technical and other reasonable measures to protect the Confidential Information from unauthorised use, shall restrict the access to such information only to employees who need to know it in order to be able to perform their job duties, and, where PBS has previously agreed in writing that the Buyer may disclose the Confidential Information to a third party, the Buyer shall ensure that the third party is bound in writing to maintain confidentiality to the same extent as the Buyer, and shall also ensure that such a third party shall observe the confidentiality obligation under these Terms and Conditions, in which case the Buyer is obliged to reimburse PBS for any damage incurred by PBS due to the breach of the confidentiality obligation by the third party to the same extent as it has been breached by the Buyer itself. PBS shall have the right to verify that the Buyer respects its contractual obligations by an inspection carried out by its own employees or by a third party upon written notice to the Buyer and in the presence of the Buyer's responsible person. The Buyer is obliged to cooperate with the inspection. In the event of a breach of the protection of confidential information, the Buyer shall be obliged to inform PBS of the breach.

5. In the event of a breach of the confidentiality obligation, PBS is entitled to claim a contractual penalty of 10,000.00 USD from the Buyer per each individual breach of such obligation. The payment of the contractual penalty shall not affect any other PBS' claims arising from the Buyer's breach of confidentiality, in particular, the claim for damages. The Buyer is obliged to pay the contractual penalty within ten (10) calendar days from delivery of the request for payment of the contractual penalty.

IX. COMPENSATION FOR DAMAGES AND OTHER LOSS

1. The total liability of PBS for damages and other loss resulting from the breach of the Contract, tort, statutory duty, good morals or otherwise arising, shall be limited in each individual case and in aggregate to the amount equal to the value of a partial Delivery, if it involves partial Deliveries, or to the price for the Subject of Performance under the Contract.

2. The Parties have agreed that if the Buyer incurs any loss due to the breach of PBS' obligations (contractual or statutory) or good morals, PBS shall only reimburse the Buyer for the actual damage, and not the lost profit. For the purposes hereof, the actual damage shall not mean any indirect consequential damage or damage under contracts of the Buyer with third parties.

3. The above agreed limitation shall not apply to compensation for damages caused intentionally or by gross negligence or to compensation for damages to person's natural rights, as well as to cases where the obligation to compensate damages cannot be limited according to applicable law.

4. No contractual penalties or other sanctions paid by the Buyer to PBS affect the PBS' right to claim for damages or other loss in the amount exceeding the contractual penalties paid, and the payment thereof shall not relieve the Buyer of the duty or obligation to which the respective contractual penalty applies.

5. Where the PBS' liability is excluded or limited, the exclusion or limitation of liability shall also apply to personal liability of employees, officers, representatives, subcontractors and auxiliary persons.

6. PBS is entitled to compensation for loss incurred by the Buyer's failure to pay a pecuniary debt even though the loss is covered by default interest and contractual penalty.

X. WITHDRAWAL FROM THE CONTRACT

1. The Parties may only withdraw from the Contract in cases of material breach of the Contract, or in cases explicitly specified in the Contract or herein, or in cases explicitly provided for in legal regulations. The withdrawal shall take effect as of the day of delivery of a written withdrawal notice to the other Party.

2. A material breach of the Contract shall mean, in particular, the following: (i) the Buyer is in default with any payment or invoiced sum for more than 30 days; (ii) the Buyer is in default with providing cooperation for more than 30 days; (iii) the Buyer has breached the confidentiality obligation under Art. VIII (3) hereof; and (iv) PBS is in default with fulfilling its obligation under the Contract for more than 90 days, and such an obligation has not been fulfilled even after the prior written notification by the Buyer and providing with additional reasonable grace period for the fulfilment of the respective obligation.

3. PBS is also entitled to withdraw from the Contract if: (i) insolvency proceedings have been initiated against the Buyer, or (ii) the court refused an application for the establishment of a decision of bankruptcy of the Buyer due to the lack of the Buyer's assets.

4. The Parties are also entitled to withdraw from the Contract if any Force Majeure event prevents delivery of the Delivery for more than 3 months.

5. Further, PBS is entitled to withdraw from the Contract if the Buyer is in default with the payment of any pecuniary debts owed to PBS for more than 30 days, even though such debts arise from a contract other than the one that is terminated hereby.

6. Without prejudice to any other rights of PBS under the Contract or by law, the Buyer is obliged, within 14 days from delivery of the withdrawal notice, to pay PBS:

- (a) The unpaid part of the agreed contractual price for the already performed Delivery;
- (b) Any and all costs that have been incurred by PBS in connection with the performance of the Delivery until the date of delivery of the withdrawal notice and that have not been paid by the Buyer yet, plus a contractual penalty of 10% of the agreed price for the performance, unless the Parties agree otherwise. The entitlement to claim damages shall not be affected by the payment of the contractual penalty.

XI. EXPORT RESTRICTIONS. END USER DECLARATION

1. PBS is not obliged to perform under these Terms and Condition if such performance is affected by any obstacles arising from national or international regulations relating to international trade law, or based on embargoes or other sanctions, including, but not limited to, restrictions imposed by the United Nations, the European Union or the United States of America, which may expose PBS or any related party thereof to sanctions, penalties or other actions of public authorities. In such a case, PBS is also entitled to withdraw from the Contract.

2. Where the Buyer assigns the subject of delivery of PBS (including any types of technical support) provided by PBS to any third party, the Buyer is obliged to comply with any applicable national and international regulations relating to export and re-export control, in particular, regulations of OEM's country of residence, the European Union and the United States of America.

3. If it is required to allow the authorities or PBS to carry out export control, the Buyer is obliged to provide promptly upon PBS' request any necessary assistance and any information relating to the respective end customer, destination and the intended purpose of use of the subject of delivery of PBS, as well as information regarding all existing export restrictions.

4. The Buyer is obliged to notify PBS in writing of any reimport of the Subject of Performance to the country of origin before such reimport is carried out.

5. Within fifteen (15) days after signing the contract the Buyer shall provide PBS with the End user declaration (hereinafter referred to as the "EUD") in the form required by the authorities of the OEM's country of residence or by PBS bank. Should the buyer be in default with issuing the EUD, the Buyer must pay PBS a contractual penalty of 0.05% of the outstanding amount for each commenced day of delay, without the need of written notice by PBS. The payment of the contractual penalty shall not affect any other PBS' claims arising from the Buyer's default. The contractual penalty shall be payable on the day following the day on which the claim arises. Delivery times shall be extended by the period of Buyer's delay in delivering the EUD and PBS shall not be in default of any other obligations under the Contract.

6. The Buyer is obliged and undertakes to indemnify and hold PBS harmless from any claims, actions, penalties, losses, costs, expenses and damages arising from or in connection with any Buyer's breach of export control regulations.

XII. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. If any provision of the Contract or these Terms and Conditions is or becomes invalid, unenforceable, implied or ineffective, this will not affect the validity, enforceability and effectiveness of the remaining provisions of the Contract or these Terms and Conditions. In such a case, the Parties are obliged to make every effort to enter into a written amendment to the Contract by which the respective invalid, unenforceable or ineffective provision shall be replaced with a new one that will better satisfy the initially intended purpose.

2. With regard to any paper documents, any notice shall be deemed delivered once it has been accepted by the addressee, or on the third day after it has been deposited with a postal operator, even if the other Party fails to collect the document, or on the day of refusal to accept the consignment, whichever comes earlier. Email correspondence shall be deemed delivered the following day after it has been sent, unless it is factually delivered earlier.

3. PBS is entitled to assign the Contract to a third party within the PBS Group without the Buyer's written consent. A third party within the PBS Group shall mean any entity controlled or regulated by PBS, or an entity controlling or regulating PBS, or an entity under joint control or management with PBS.

4. Waiver of any PBS's rights or failure to exercise any rights arising from the breach of any Buyer's obligation shall not be interpreted as a waiver of rights relating to the breach of the Contract or applicable legal regulations.

5. Any disputes arising from or in connection with this Contract that could not be settled amicably by the Parties as well as any disputes relating to the validity and effectiveness of the Contract and all matters arising out of or relating to it, including torts, are governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Georgia, United States of America, without regard to any choice of or conflict of law provision that would cause the application of laws other than those of the State of Georgia.

6. These Terms and Conditions, together with the Annexes, form an entire agreement with the document to which they are annexed and supersede any previous arrangements between the Parties regarding the subject matter of this contractual relationship. The Parties have agreed that no rights and obligations can be inferred beyond the scope of this Contract from any existing or future practice established between the Parties, or from business practices maintained in general or within the industry in which the subject matter of this contract belongs.
